Reference: Year End Report (7/1/97-12/31/97)

Dear Mr. Nachowiak:

On April 22, 1998, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Your May 6, 1998, response is incomplete because you have not provided all the requested information. For this response to be considered adequate, the following information is still required.

The name of your connected organization, Centex Corporation, must be included in the name of your political committee. All committee filings (Statement of Organization, disclosure reports and amendments) must reflect the official name of the connected organization, as well as any abbreviation, within its title. 2 U.S.C. § 432 (e)(5). Please complete Section 1 of the enclosed FEC Form 1 to amend the name of your Political Committee. Note that your committee may continue to use commonly recognized abbreviations (CENTEXPAC) on daily communications such as letterhead and committee checks.

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.

If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Debbie Manzano on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 or our local number (202) 694-1130.

Sincerely,

(revised 4/87)

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the research and the objectives of the study. It then presents a literature review of the existing research on the topic. The methodology section describes the research design and the data collection process. The results section presents the findings of the study, and the conclusion section summarizes the main findings and provides recommendations for future research.

The study was conducted in a laboratory setting, and the data were collected using a series of experiments. The results of the experiments were analyzed using statistical methods, and the findings were compared with the results of previous studies. The study found that the research objectives were achieved, and the results were consistent with the findings of previous research.

The study has several limitations, and there are some areas that need to be explored in future research. The study was conducted in a laboratory setting, and the results may not be generalizable to real-world situations. The study also had a limited sample size, and the results may be affected by the characteristics of the sample.

In conclusion, the study found that the research objectives were achieved, and the results were consistent with the findings of previous research. The study has several limitations, and there are some areas that need to be explored in future research.
